

The latest policies and regulations on electronic visas for foreigners will be applied from August 15, 2023.

The Government issued Resolution No. 127/NQ-CP on August 14, 2023, marking an important event in the history of the country's visa policy. Accordingly, from August 15, 2023, Vietnam officially applies electronic visas (E-Visa) to citizens of all countries in the world, opening the door for many purposes including tourism, visit relatives, work, trade and invest.

This is a great step forward in opening Vietnam's doors to the world, regardless of nationality and territory. The duration of the E-Visa issued to foreigners will range from 1 month to 3 months, and can be extended upon expiration. This creates favorable conditions for tourists and people interested in Vietnam.

Vietnam's opening to E-Visa is not only a decisive macro step, but also an important milestone in promoting international cooperation and economic development. Along with attracting a large number of international tourists, this policy also creates favorable conditions for trade and investment activities between Vietnam and other countries around the world.

Below is a list of all countries and territories in the world whose citizens can apply for an E-Visa to enter Vietnam:
